CHAPTER LVI.

PARTITION AND DISTRIBUTION OF ESTATES.

Add to section 12, page 598.

Provided further, that if none of the parties entitled to shares in such land will accept the same as provided in this and the preceding section, then and in such case the probate court may authorize the executor or administrator to sell such land and pay the proceeds, after deducting costs and expenses of sale, to the parties respectively entitled to the same, designating the proportion that each shall receive; such sale to be made and conducted in the same manner as provided by law for the sale of lands by executors and administrators for the payment of debts. (1883, c. 42, § 1.)

§ 19a. Reopening of decree—when permitted. In any case where a decree has heretofore been made or shall hereafter be made without notice by a probate court, purporting to assign the estate of a deceased person or the residue thereof to the person or persons entitled thereto, and such probate court has made an order in terms discharging the executor or administrator of such estate, any person interested in any real estate embraced within the terms of such decree, whether as heir or devisee of such deceased person, or as grantee of any heir or devisee, may apply to said court to have the said real estate of such deceased person, or the portion thereof in which the applicant is interested, assigned to the person or persons entitled thereto; and thereupon such court shall by order appoint a time for hearing said application, and shall direct notice of such hearing to be given by publication of said order in a newspaper published in the county where said court is held, and named in the order, for three weeks successively, at least once in each week, and upon the hearing, unless it appears that there are debts or claims existing against the deceased or the estate, not paid or provided for, the probate court shall enter a decree assigning said real estate to the person or persons entitled thereto, and the share or shares so assigned shall be held by the respective owners free from all debts, claims, or demands against the estate, except that the same shall not affect the lien of any mortgage upon said real estate. (1883, c. 113, § 1.)
