Third. That the arbitrators were guilty of misconduct, in refusing to postpone the hearing upon sufficient cause shown, or in refusing to hear evidence pertinent and material to the controversy, or any other misbehavior by which the rights of any party have been prejudiced;

Fourth. That the arbitrators exceeded their powers, or that they so imperfectly executed them that a mutual, final and definite award on the subject-matter submitted was not made;

Fifth. That the award is contrary to law and evidence.

SEC. 4352. Filed and docketed — Appeal.— Such record shall be filed and docketed as records of judgments in other cases, shall have the same force and effect in all respects, be subject to all the provisions of law in relation to judgments in actions, and may in like manner be removed by appeal and reversed, and execution be issued thereupon.

G. S. ch. 89, § 17. 23 M. 46.

SEC. 4353. Costs.— If there is no provision in the submission concerning the costs of the proceedings, the arbitrators may make such award respecting the costs as they shall judge reasonable, including therein a compensation for their own services; but the court may reduce the sum charged for the compensation of the arbitrators, if it appears to them unreasonable.
