

144.4176 PETITION; NOTICE.

Subdivision 1. Petition. The petition must set forth the following:

- (1) the grounds and underlying facts that demonstrate that the respondent is a health threat to others and, unless an emergency court order is sought under section 144.4182, has engaged in noncompliant behavior;
- (2) the petitioner's efforts to alleviate the health threat to others prior to the issuance of a health directive, unless an emergency court order is sought under section 144.4182;
- (3) the petitioner's efforts to issue the health directive to the respondent in person, unless an emergency court order is sought under section 144.4182;
- (4) the type of relief sought; and
- (5) a request for a court hearing on the allegations contained in the petition.

Subd. 2. Hearing notice. The notice must contain the following information:

- (1) the time, date, and place of the hearing;
- (2) respondent's right to appear at the hearing;
- (3) respondent's right to present and cross-examine witnesses; and
- (4) respondent's right to counsel, including the right, if indigent, to representation by counsel designated by the court or county of venue.

History: 1987 c 209 s 9