

306.71 RIGHT AND DUTIES AFTER AMENDMENT.

A religious corporation amending its certificates or articles of incorporation under sections 306.69 to 306.72 and providing for the management and conduct of its cemetery as provided in those sections, is then considered to be a private cemetery association having the rights, exemptions, privileges, duties, and liabilities that are provided by law concerning private cemetery associations, without regard to the fact that the cemetery is established by a religious corporation.
