(b) The conversion is effective upon the filing with the secretary of state and upon the recording of the written certificate in the county recorder's office.

Subd. 3. Effect of being governed by this chapter. The conversion of a housing cooperative organized under chapter 308A or 308B to a cooperative governed by this chapter does not affect any obligations or liabilities of the cooperative before the conversion or the personal liability of any person incurred before the conversion. When the conversion is effective, the rights, privileges, and powers of the cooperative; real and personal property of the cooperative; debts due to the cooperative; and causes of action belonging to the cooperative remain vested in the cooperative and are the property of the cooperative as converted and governed by this chapter. Title to real property vested by deed or otherwise in the housing cooperative organized under chapters 308A and 308B does not revert and is not impaired by reason of the cooperative being converted and governed by this chapter. Rights of creditors and liens upon property of the housing cooperative under chapters 308A and 308B are preserved unimpaired, and debts, liabilities, and duties of the housing cooperative under chapters 308A and 308B remain attached to the housing cooperative as converted and governed by this chapter and may be enforced against the housing cooperative to the same extent as if the debts, liabilities, and duties had originally been incurred or contracted by the cooperative as organized under this chapter. The rights, privileges, powers, and interests in property of the cooperative under chapters 308A and 308B, as well as the debts, liabilities, and duties of the cooperative are not deemed, as a consequence of the conversion, to have been transferred for any purpose of the laws of this state.

Subd. 2. Contents. (a) If not stated in the articles, the bylaws must state:

- (1) the purpose of the cooperative;
- (2) the capital structure of the cooperative to the extent not stated in the articles, including a statement of the classes and relative rights, preferences, and restrictions granted to or imposed upon each class of member interests, and the authority to issue membership interests, which may be designated to be determined by the board;

- (4) a statement that occupant membership interests with voting power shall be restricted to one vote for each member in the affairs of the cooperative or a statement describing the allocation of voting power allocated as prescribed in this chapter;
- (5) a statement that membership interests held by a member are transferable only with the approval of the board or as provided in the bylaws; and
- (6) if nonoccupant membership interests are authorized, a statement as to how profits and losses will be allocated and cash will be distributed between occupant membership interests collectively and nonoccupant membership interests collectively to the extent not stated in the articles, a statement that net income allocated to an occupant membership interest as determined by the board in excess of dividends and additions to reserves shall be distributed on the basis of patronage, and a statement that the records of the cooperative shall include occupant membership interests and, if authorized, nonoccupant membership interests, which may be further described in the bylaws of any classes and in the reserves.

(b) The bylaws may contain any provision relating to the management or regulation of the affairs of the cooperative that are not inconsistent with law or the articles, and may include the following:

(1) the number of directors and the qualifications, manner of election, powers, duties, and compensation, if any, of directors;

(6) the basis for allocating common expenses, charges, outlays, and other expenditures or payments of the cooperative among dwelling units. Unless limited in the bylaws, the board of directors may use any approach the board believes to be fair and that is a reasonable reflection of use or consumption that may be utilized, provided that the sum of each category of interests allocated at any time to all memberships under any of the provisions must equal one if stated as a fraction, or 100 percent if stated as a percentage;

(7) the circumstances under which the board of directors may execute share loan recognition agreements with lenders that provide members with loans to finance the purchase of memberships in the cooperative, and the limitations of recognition agreements;

(8) the circumstances under which liens are imposed against membership interests and occupancy rights, how the liens are foreclosed by the cooperative, the process by which the cooperative may remove the members and occupants from the dwelling units, and the circumstances and processes under which the cooperative may terminate the membership and occupancy rights of its members;

(10) any provisions required by the articles to be in the bylaws.

(c) Any other provision relating to the management or regulation of the affairs of the cooperative that are not inconsistent with law or the cooperative's articles.

Subd. 3. Adoption. (a) Bylaws may be adopted by the organizer or a nonoccupant member if, at the time of adoption, the cooperative does not have any occupant members.

(b) The bylaws of a cooperative may be adopted or amended by the members at a regular or special member meeting if:

(1) the notice of the regular or special meeting contains a statement that the bylaws or restated bylaws will be voted upon and copies are included with the notice, or copies are available upon request from the cooperative, and a summary statement of the proposed bylaws or amendment is included with the notice;

(2) a quorum is registered as being present or represented by mail or alternative voting method if the mail or alternative voting method is authorized by the board; and

(3) the bylaws or amendment is approved by a majority vote cast, or for a cooperative with articles or bylaws requiring more than majority approval or other conditions for approval, the bylaws or amendment is approved by a proportion of the vote cast or a number of the total members are required by the articles or bylaws and the conditions for approval in the articles or bylaws have been satisfied.

(c) Until the next annual or special members' meeting, the majority of directors may adopt and amend bylaws for the cooperative that are consistent with subdivisions 4 to 6, which may be further amended or repealed by the members at an annual or special members' meeting.

Subd. 4. Amendment of bylaws by board or members. (a) The board may amend the bylaws at any time to add, change, or delete a provision, unless:

(1) this chapter, the articles, or the bylaws reserve the power exclusively to the members in whole or in part; or

(2) a particular bylaw expressly prohibits the board from doing so.

(b) Any amendment of the bylaws by the board must be distributed to the members no later than ten days after adoption and the notice of the annual meeting of the members must contain a notice and summary or the actual amendments to the bylaws adopted by the board.

(c) The members may amend the bylaws even though the bylaws may also be amended by the board.

Subd. 5. Bylaw changing quorum or voting requirement for members. (a) The members may amend the bylaws to fix a greater quorum or voting requirement for members, or voting groups of members, than is required under this chapter. An amendment to the bylaws to add, change, or delete a greater quorum or voting requirement for members shall meet the same quorum requirement and be adopted by the same vote and voting groups required to take action under the quorum and voting requirements then in effect or proposed to be adopted, whichever is greater.

(b) A bylaw that fixes a greater quorum or voting requirement for members under paragraph (a) may not be adopted and shall not be amended by the board.

Subd. 6. Bylaw changing quorum or voting requirement for directors. (a) A bylaw that fixes a greater quorum or voting requirement for the board may be amended: (1) if adopted by the members, only by the members; or (2) if adopted by the board, either by the members or by the board.

(b) A bylaw adopted or amended by the members that fixes a greater quorum or voting requirement for the board may provide that the bylaw may be amended only by a specified vote of either the members or the board, but if the bylaw is to be amended by a specified vote of the members, the bylaw must be adopted by the same specified vote of the members.

(c) Action by the board under paragraph (a), clause (2), to adopt or amend a bylaw that changes the quorum or voting requirement for the board shall meet the same quorum requirement and be adopted by the same vote required to take action under the quorum and voting requirement then in effect or proposed to be adopted, whichever is greater.

Subd. 7. Emergency bylaws. (a) Unless otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws, the board may adopt bylaws to be effective only in an emergency as defined in paragraph (d). The emergency bylaws,

- (1) procedures for calling a meeting of the board;
- (2) quorum requirements for the meeting; and

(c) Action taken in good faith in accordance with the emergency bylaws:

- (1) binds the cooperative; and
- (2) may not be the basis for imposition of liability on any director, officer, employee, or agent of the cooperative on the grounds that the action was not authorized cooperative action.

(d) An emergency exists for the purposes of this section, if a quorum of the directors cannot readily be obtained because of some catastrophic event.

308C.312 LIMITED EQUITY COOPERATIVES.

In addition to safeguarding the foregoing public purpose, a limited equity cooperative shall meet the following requirements:

That value shall be consistent with the object of maintaining long-term affordability of membership interests for persons or households of low and moderate income;

(2) a limited equity formula, once established by a cooperative in its articles, may be amended only if that amendment does not make the cooperative membership unaffordable for low or moderate income households for which the cooperative was originally incorporated. A limited equity cooperative once organized under this chapter may not reorganize as other than a limited equity cooperative without first dissolving;

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

308C.401 BOARD GOVERNS COOPERATIVE.

A cooperative shall be governed by its board, which shall take all action for and on behalf of the cooperative, except those actions reserved or granted to members. Board action shall be by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors voting at a duly called meeting unless a greater majority is required by the articles or bylaws. A director individually or collectively with other directors does not have authority to act for or on behalf of the cooperative unless authorized by the board. A director may advocate interests of members or member groups to the board, but the duty of each director is to represent the best interests of the cooperative and all members collectively.

History: 2024 c 96 art 1 s 23

308C.405 NUMBER OF DIRECTORS.

A board of directors must consist of three or more individuals, with the number specified in or fixed in accordance with the articles or bylaws. The power to elect or appoint directors is vested in the members. If the number of directors is fewer than three, or such greater minimum number set forth in the articles or bylaws, a majority of the directors in office may appoint or elect the number of additional directors necessary to increase the board to three directors or such greater minimum set forth in the articles or bylaws.

History: 2024 c 96 art 1 s 24

308C.411 ELECTION OF DIRECTORS.

Subdivision 1. First board. Unless appointed by a developer, the organizer or organizers shall elect and obtain the acknowledgment of the first board to serve until directors are elected by members. Until election by members, the first board shall appoint directors to fill any vacancies. The first board may be named in the articles.

Subd. 2. Generally. (a) Directors shall be elected for the term, at the time, and in the manner provided in this section and the bylaws.

(b) Except for the first board, all of the directors shall be members and shall be elected exclusively by the members holding occupant membership interests.

(c) The voting authority of the directors may be allocated according to equity classifications of the cooperative provided that at least two-thirds of the voting power on general matters of the cooperative shall be allocated to the directors who are members holding occupant membership interests.

(d) A director holds office for the term the director was elected and until a successor is elected and has qualified, or until the earlier death, resignation, removal, or disqualification of the director.

(e) The expiration of a director's term with or without election of a qualified successor does not make the prior or subsequent acts of the director or the board void or voidable.

(f) Subject to any limitation in the articles or bylaws, directors shall not be compensated, but may be reimbursed reasonable and necessary expenses incurred when they are acting on behalf of the board of directors.

(g) Directors may be divided into or designated and elected by class or other distinction as provided in the articles or bylaws.

(h) A director may resign by giving written notice to the chair of the board or the board. The resignation is effective without acceptance when the notice is given to the chair of the board or the board unless a later effective time is specified in the notice.

Subd. 3. Election at regular meeting. Directors shall be elected at the regular member meeting for the terms of office prescribed in the bylaws. Except for directors elected at special meetings to replace a vacancy, all directors shall be elected at the regular member meeting.

Subd. 4. Vote by mail or alternative ballot. The following shall apply to voting by mail or alternative ballot voting:

(1) a member may not vote for a director other than by being present at a meeting or by mail ballot or alternative ballot authorized by the board;

(2) the ballot shall be in a form prescribed by the board;

(3) the member shall mark the ballot for the candidate chosen and mail the ballot to the cooperative in a sealed plain envelope inside another envelope bearing the member's name, or shall vote designating the candidate chosen by alternative ballot in the manner prescribed by the board; and

(4) if the ballot of the member is received by the cooperative on or before the date of the regular member meeting or as otherwise prescribed for alternative ballots, the ballot shall be accepted and counted as the vote of the absent member.

Subd. 5. Business entity members may nominate persons for director. If a member of a cooperative is not a natural person, and the bylaws do not provide otherwise, the member may appoint or elect one or more natural persons to be eligible for election as a director.

Subd. 6. Acts not void or voidable. The expiration of a director's term with or without the election of a qualified successor does not make prior or subsequent acts of the director void or voidable.

History: 2024 c 96 art 1 s 25; 2025 c 20 s 240

308C.415 FILLING VACANCIES.

Subdivision 1. Occupant directors. If an occupant member director's position becomes vacant or a new director position is created for a director that was or is to be elected by occupant members, the board, in consultation with the directors elected by occupant members, shall appoint an occupant member of the cooperative to fill the director's position until the next regular or special members' meeting. If there are no directors elected by occupant members on the board at the time of the vacancy, a special members' meeting shall be called to fill the occupant member director vacancy.

Subd. 2. Nonoccupant directors. If the vacating director was not elected by the occupant members or a new director position is created, unless otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws, the board shall appoint a director to fill the vacant position by majority vote of the remaining or then serving directors even though less than a quorum. At the next regular or special members' meeting, the members shall elect a director to fill the unexpired term of the vacant director's position.

History: 2024 c 96 art 1 s 26

308C.421 REMOVAL OF DIRECTORS.

Subdivision 1. Modification. The provisions of this section apply unless modified by the articles or the bylaws.

Subd. 2. Removal by directors. A director may be removed at any time, with or without cause, if:

- (1) the director was named by the board to fill a vacancy;
- (2) the members have not elected directors in the interval between the time of the appointment to fill a vacancy and the time of the removal; and
- (3) a majority of the remaining directors present affirmatively vote to remove the director.

Subd. 3. Removal by members. Any one or all of the directors may be removed at any time, with or without cause, by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the entire membership of record at any duly called annual meeting, or at any special meeting called for the purpose of removing or electing directors; provided that if a director has been elected solely by the occupant members or the holders of a class or series of membership interests as stated in the articles or bylaws, then that director may be removed only by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the voting power of the occupant members for a director elected by the occupant members or of all membership interests of that class or series entitled to vote at an election of that director.

Subd. 4. Election of replacements. New directors may be elected at a meeting at which directors are removed.

History: 2024 c 96 art 1 s 27

308C.425 BOARD OF DIRECTORS' MEETINGS.

Subdivision 1. Time and place. Meetings of the board may be held from time to time as provided in the articles or bylaws. If the meeting is an open meeting as provided for in this chapter, it must be held on the cooperative's premises or at such other location that the cooperative's members can reasonably attend. If the meeting is a closed meeting as authorized by this chapter, the meeting may be held at any location designated by the board.

Subd. 2. Open meetings. Meetings of the board must be open to all members, subject to the following requirements:

- (1) to the extent practicable, the board shall give reasonable notice to the members of the date, time, and place of each open board meeting. If the date, time, and place of meetings are provided for in the bylaws, announced at a previous meeting of the board, posted in a location accessible to the members and designated by the board from time to time, or if an emergency requires immediate consideration of a matter by the board, notice is not required;

(2) meetings may be closed to discuss the following:

(i) personnel matters;

(ii) pending or potential litigation, arbitration, or other potentially adversarial proceedings between members or between the board or cooperative and members, or other matters in which any member may have an adversarial interest if the board determines that closing the meeting is necessary to discuss strategy or to otherwise protect the position of the board or cooperative or the privacy of a member;

(iii) criminal activity arising within the cooperative if the board determines that closing the meeting is necessary to protect the privacy of the victim or that opening the meeting would jeopardize investigation of the activity;

(iv) meetings with legal counsel for counsel and advice on any matter of concern to the board; and

(v) review of financial and other lawful information required by the board of directors of all applicants for membership in the cooperative; and

(3) the minutes of any part of a meeting that is closed under this section may be kept confidential at the discretion of the board.

Subd. 3. Electronic communications. (a) A conference among directors by any means of communication through which the directors may simultaneously hear each other during the conference constitutes a board meeting if the same notice is given of the conference as would be required by subdivision 4 for a meeting and if the number of directors participating in the conference would be sufficient to constitute a quorum at a meeting. Participation in a meeting by that means constitutes presence in person at the meeting.

(b) A director may participate in an in-person board meeting by any means of communication through which the director, other directors so participating, and all directors physically present at the meeting may simultaneously hear each other during the meeting. Participation in a meeting by that means constitutes presence in person at the meeting.

Subd. 4. Calling meetings and notice. Unless the articles or bylaws provide for a different time period, a director may call a board meeting by giving at least ten days' notice or, in the case of organizational meetings, at least three days' notice to all directors of the date, time, and place of the meeting. The notice need not state the purpose of the meeting unless this chapter, the articles, or the bylaws require it.

Subd. 5. Previously scheduled meetings. If the day or date, time, and place of a board meeting have been provided in the articles or bylaws, or announced at a previous meeting of the board, no notice is required. Notice of an adjourned meeting need not be given other than by announcement at the meeting at which adjournment is taken.

Subd. 6. Waiver of notice. A director may waive notice of a meeting of the board. A waiver of notice by a director entitled to notice is effective whether given before, at, or after the meeting, and whether given in writing, orally, or by attendance. Attendance by a director at a meeting is a waiver of notice of that meeting, except where the director objects at the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened and the director does not participate in the meeting after the objection.

Subd. 7. Absent directors. If the articles or bylaws so provide, a director may give advance written consent or opposition to a proposal to be acted on at a board meeting. If the director is not present at the meeting, consent, or opposition to a proposal does not constitute presence for purposes of determining the existence of a quorum, but consent or opposition must be counted as the vote of a director present at the meeting in favor of or against the proposal and must be entered in the minutes or other record of action at the meeting, if the proposal acted on at the meeting is substantially the same or has substantially the same effect as the proposal to which the director has consented or objected.

308C.431 QUORUM.

A majority, or a larger portion or number provided in the articles or bylaws, of the directors currently holding office is a quorum for the transaction of business. In the absence of a quorum, a majority of the directors present may adjourn a meeting from time to time until a quorum is present. If a quorum is present when a duly called or held meeting is convened, the directors present may continue to transact business until adjournment, even though the withdrawal of a number of directors originally present leaves less than the proportion of number otherwise required for a quorum.

History: 2024 c 96 art 1 s 29

308C.435 ACT OF BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

The board shall take action by the affirmative vote of a majority of directors present at a duly held meeting at the time the action is taken, except where this chapter, the articles, or bylaws require the affirmative vote of a larger proportion or number. If the articles or bylaws require a larger proportion or number than is required by this chapter for a particular action, the articles or bylaws control.

History: 2024 c 96 art 1 s 30

308C.441 ACTION WITHOUT A MEETING.

Subdivision 1. Method. An action required or permitted to be taken at a board meeting may be taken by written action signed by all of the directors. If the articles or bylaws so provide, any action, other than an action requiring member approval, may be taken by written action signed by the number of directors that would be required to take the same action at a meeting of the board at which all directors were present. If the board takes an action without a meeting, the written action must be signed by all of the members of the board, must state why the action was taken without a meeting, and must be placed in the corporate records of the cooperative.

Subd. 2. Effective time. The written action is effective when signed by the required number of directors, unless a different effective time is provided in the written action.

Subd. 3. Notice and liability. When written action is permitted to be taken by less than all directors, all directors must be notified immediately of its text and effective date. Failure to provide the notice does not invalidate the written action. A director who does not sign or consent to the written action has no liability for the action or actions taken by the written action.

History: 2024 c 96 art 1 s 31

308C.451 COMMITTEES.

Subdivision 1. Generally. If the bylaws so provide, the board may establish committees. A resolution approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the board may establish committees having the authority of the board in the management of the business of the cooperative only to the extent provided in the resolution. Committees may include a special litigation committee consisting of one or more independent directors or other independent persons to consider legal rights or remedies of the cooperative and whether those rights and remedies should be pursued. Committees other than special litigation committees are subject at all times to the direction and control of the board.

Subd. 2. Membership. Committee members must be natural persons. Unless the articles or bylaws provide for a different membership or manner of appointment, a committee consists of one or more persons, who need not be directors or members, appointed by affirmative vote of a majority of the directors present.

Subd. 3. Procedure. The procedures for meetings of the board apply to committees and members of committees to the same extent as those sections apply to the board and individual directors.

Subd. 4. Minutes. Minutes, if any, of committee meetings must be made available upon request to members of the committee and to any director.

Subd. 5. Standard of conduct. The establishment of, delegation of authority to, and action by a committee does not alone constitute compliance by a director with the standard of conduct set forth in section 308C.455.

Subd. 6. Committee members considered directors. Committee members are considered to be directors for purposes of sections 308C.455, 308C.461, and 308C.471.

History: 2024 c 96 art 1 s 32

308C.455 STANDARD OF CONDUCT.

Subdivision 1. Standard and liability. A director shall discharge the duties of the position of director in good faith, in a manner the director reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the cooperative, and with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances. A person who so performs those duties is not liable by reason of being or having been a director of the cooperative.

Subd. 2. Reliance. (a) A director is entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports, or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, in each case prepared or presented by:

(1) one or more officers or employees of the cooperative who the director reasonably believes to be liable and competent in the matters presented;

(2) counsel, public accountants, the general manager or management company, or other persons as to matters that the director reasonably believes are within the person's professional or expert competence; or

(3) a committee of the board upon which the director does not serve, duly established by the board, as to matters within its designated authority, if the director reasonably believes the committee to merit confidence.

(b) Paragraph (a) does not apply to a director who has knowledge concerning the matter in question that makes the reliance otherwise permitted by paragraph (a) unwarranted.

Subd. 3. Presumption of assent and dissent. A director who is present at a meeting of the board when an action is approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors present is presumed to have assented to the action approved, unless the director:

(1) objects at the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened and does not participate in the meeting after the objection, in which case the director is not considered to be present at the meeting for any purpose of this chapter;

(2) votes against the action at the meeting; or

(3) is prohibited by a conflict of interest from voting on the action.

Subd. 4. Considerations. In discharging the duties of the position of director, a director may, in considering the best interests of the cooperative, consider the interests of the cooperative's employees, vendors, agents, suppliers, and creditors, the economy of the state, and long-term as well as short-term interests of the cooperative and its members, including the possibility that these interests may be best served by the continued independence of the cooperative.

308C.461 DIRECTOR CONFLICTS OF INTEREST.

Subdivision 1. Conflict and procedure when conflict arises. (a) A contract or other transaction between a cooperative and one or more of its directors, or between a cooperative and a business entity in or of which one or more of its directors are governors, directors, managers, officers, or legal representatives or have a material financial interest, is not void or voidable because the director or directors or the other business entities are parties or because the director or directors are present at the meeting of the members or the board or a committee at which the contract or transaction is authorized, approved, or ratified, if:

(1) the contract or transaction was, and the person asserting the validity of the contract or transaction sustains the burden of establishing that the contract or transaction was, fair and reasonable as to the cooperative at the time it was authorized, approved, or ratified, and:

(i) the material facts as to the contract or transaction and as to the director's or directors' interest are disclosed or known to the members; and

(ii) the material facts as to the contract or transaction and as to the director's or directors' interest are fully disclosed or known to the board or a committee, and the board or committee authorizes, approves, or ratifies the contract or transaction in good faith by a majority of the board or committee, but the interested director or directors are not counted in determining the presence of a quorum and must not vote; or

(2) the contract or transaction is a distribution, contract, or transaction that is made available to all members as part of the cooperative's business.

(b) If a committee is elected or appointed to authorize, ratify, or approve a contract or transaction under this section, the members of the committee must not have a conflict of interest and be charged with representing the best interests of the cooperative.

Subd. 2. Material financial interest. For purposes of this section: a director has a material financial interest in each organization in which the director or the spouse; parents; children and spouses of children; brothers and sisters and spouses of brothers and sisters; and the brothers and sisters of the spouse of the director or any combination of them have a material financial interest. For purposes of this section, a contract or other transaction between a cooperative and the spouse; parents; children and spouses of children; brothers and sisters and spouses of brothers and sisters; and the brothers and sisters of the spouse of a director or any combination of them, is considered to be a transaction between the cooperative and the director.

History: 2024 c 96 art 1 s 34

308C.465 LIMITATION OF DIRECTOR'S LIABILITY.

Subdivision 1. Articles may limit liability. A director's personal liability to the cooperative or members for monetary damages for breach of the standards of conduct may be eliminated or limited in the articles or bylaws except as provided in subdivision 2.

Subd. 2. Restrictions on liability limitation. The articles or bylaws may not eliminate or limit the liability of a director:

(1) for a breach of the director's obligation to act in good faith in a manner the director reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the cooperative, and with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances;

(2) for acts or omissions that are not in good faith or involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law;

(3) for knowing violations of laws or for illegal distributions;

(4) for a transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit; or

(5) for an act or omission occurring before the date when the provision in the articles or bylaws eliminating or limiting liability becomes effective.

INDEMNIFICATION

308C.471 INDEMNIFICATION.

Subdivision 1. Definitions. (a) The definitions in this subdivision apply to this section.

(b) "Cooperative" includes a domestic or foreign cooperative that was the predecessor of the cooperative referred to in this section in a conversion, merger, or other transaction in which the predecessor's existence ceased upon consummation of the transaction.

(c) "Official capacity" means:

(1) with respect to a director, the position of director in a cooperative;

(2) with respect to a person other than a director, the elective or appointive office or position held by the person, member of a committee of the board, the employment relationship undertaken by an employee of the cooperative, or the scope of the services provided by members of the cooperative who provide services to the cooperative; and

(3) with respect to a director, general manager, member, or employee of the cooperative who, while a member, director, general manager, or employee of the cooperative, is or was serving at the request of the cooperative or whose duties in that position involve or involved service as a governor, director, manager, officer, member, partner, trustee, employee, or agent of another organization or employee benefit plan, the position of that person as a governor, director, manager, officer, member, partner, trustee, employee, or agent, as the case may be, of the other organization or employee benefit plan.

(d) "Proceeding" means a threatened, pending, or completed civil, criminal, administrative, arbitration, or investigative proceeding, including a proceeding by or in the right of the cooperative.

(e) "Special legal counsel" means counsel who has not represented the cooperative or a related organization, or a director, manager, member of a committee of the board, or employee whose indemnification is in issue.

Subd. 2. Indemnification. (a) Subject to the provisions of subdivision 4, a cooperative shall indemnify a person made or threatened to be made a party to a proceeding by reason of the former or present official capacity of the person against judgments, penalties, fines, including, without limitation, excise taxes assessed against the person with respect to an employee benefit plan, settlements, and reasonable expenses, including attorney fees and disbursements incurred by the person in connection with the proceeding, if, with respect to the acts or omissions of the person complained of in the proceeding, the person:

(1) has not been indemnified by another organization or employee benefit plan for the same judgments, penalties, fines, including, without limitation, excise taxes assessed against the person with respect to an employee benefit plan, settlements, and reasonable expenses, including attorney fees and disbursements incurred by the person in connection with the proceeding with respect to the same acts or omissions;

(2) acted in good faith;

(3) received no improper personal benefit and the person has not committed an act for which liability cannot be eliminated or limited under section 308C.465, subdivision 2;

(4) in the case of a criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct was unlawful; and

(5) in the case of acts or omissions occurring in the official capacity described in subdivision 1, paragraph (c), clause (1) or (2), reasonably believed that the conduct was in the best interests of the cooperative, or in the case of acts or omissions occurring in the official capacity described in subdivision 1, paragraph (c), clause (3), reasonably believed that the conduct was not opposed to the best interests of the cooperative. If the person's acts or omissions complained of in the proceeding relate to conduct as a director, officer, trustee, employee, or agent of an employee benefit plan, the conduct is not considered to be opposed to the best interests of the cooperative if the person reasonably believed that the conduct was in the best interests of the participants or beneficiaries of the employee benefit plan.

(b) The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent does not, of itself, establish that the person did not meet the criteria set forth in this subdivision.

Subd. 3. Advances. Subject to the provisions of subdivision 4, if a person is made or threatened to be made a party to a proceeding, the person is entitled, upon written request to the cooperative, to payment or reimbursement by the cooperative of reasonable expenses, including attorney fees and disbursements incurred by the person in advance of the final disposition of the proceeding:

(1) upon receipt by the cooperative of a written affirmation by the person of a good faith belief that the criteria for indemnification set forth in subdivision 2 have been satisfied, and a written undertaking by the person to repay all amounts paid or reimbursed by the cooperative, if it is ultimately determined that the criteria for indemnification has not been satisfied; and

(2) after a determination that the facts then known to those making the determination would not preclude indemnification under this section.

The written undertaking required by clause (1) is an unlimited general obligation of the person making it, but need not be secured and shall be accepted without reference to financial ability to make the repayment.

Subd. 4. Prohibition or limit on indemnification or advances. The articles or bylaws either may prohibit indemnification or advances of expenses otherwise required by this section or may impose conditions on indemnification or advances of expenses in addition to the conditions contained in subdivisions 2 and 3, including, without limitation, monetary limits on indemnification or advances of expenses if the conditions apply equally to all persons or to all persons within a given class. A prohibition or limit on indemnification or advances of expenses may not apply to or affect the right of a person to indemnification or advances of expenses with respect to any acts or omissions of the person occurring before the effective date of a provision in the articles or the date of adoption of a provision in the bylaws establishing the prohibition or limit on indemnification or advances of expenses.

Subd. 5. Reimbursement to witnesses. This section does not require, or limit the ability of a cooperative to reimburse expenses, including attorney fees and disbursements incurred by a person in connection with an appearance as a witness in a proceeding at a time when the person has not been made or threatened to be made a party to a proceeding.

Subd. 6. Determination of eligibility. (a) All determinations whether indemnification of a person is required because the criteria set forth in subdivision 2 have been satisfied and whether a person is entitled to payment or reimbursement of expenses in advance of the final disposition of a proceeding as provided in subdivision 3 must be made:

(1) by the board by a majority of a quorum, if the directors who are, at the time, parties to the proceeding are not counted for determining either a majority or the presence of a quorum;

(2) if a quorum under clause (1) cannot be obtained by a majority of a committee of the board consisting solely of two or more directors not at the time parties to the proceeding duly designated to act in the matter by a majority of the full board, including directors who are parties;

(3) if a determination is not made under clause (1) or (2) by special legal counsel selected either by a majority of the board or a committee by vote under clause (1) or (2) or if the requisite quorum of the full board cannot be obtained and the committee cannot be established by a majority of the full board, including directors who are parties;

(4) if a determination is not made under clauses (1) to (3) by the affirmative vote of the members, but the membership interests held by parties to the proceeding must not be counted in determining the presence of a quorum, and are not considered to be present and entitled to vote on the determination; or

(5) if an adverse determination is made under clauses (1) to (4) or paragraph (b), or if no determination is made under clauses (1) to (4) or paragraph (b) within 60 days after (i) the later to occur of the termination of a proceeding or a written request for indemnification to the cooperative, or (ii) a written request for an advance of expenses, as the case may be, by a court in this state, which may be the same court in which the proceeding involving the person's liability took place upon application of the person and any notice the court requires. The person seeking indemnification or payment or reimbursement of expenses under this clause has the burden of establishing that the person is entitled to indemnification or payment or reimbursement of expenses.

(b) With respect to a person who is not, and was not at the time of the acts or omissions complained of in the proceedings; a director, general manager, or person possessing, directly or indirectly, the power to direct or cause the direction of the management or policies of the cooperative; the determination whether indemnification of this person is required because the criteria set forth in subdivision 2 have been satisfied; and whether this person is entitled to payment or reimbursement of expenses in advance of the final disposition of a proceeding as provided in subdivision 3 may be made by an annually appointed committee of the board, having at least one member who is a director. The committee shall report at least annually to the board concerning its actions.

Subd. 7. Insurance. A cooperative may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of a person in that person's official capacity against any liability asserted against and incurred by the person in or arising from that capacity, whether or not the cooperative would have been required to indemnify the person against the liability under the provisions of this section.

Subd. 8. Disclosure. A cooperative that indemnifies or advances expenses to a person in accordance with this section in connection with a proceeding by or on behalf of the cooperative shall report to the members in writing the amount of the indemnification or advance and to whom and on whose behalf it was paid not later than the next meeting of members.

Subd. 9. Indemnification of other persons. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the power of the cooperative to indemnify persons other than a director, general manager, member, employee, or member of a committee of the board of the cooperative by contract or otherwise.

308C.475 OFFICERS.

- (1) a president or chief executive officer;
- (2) one or more vice presidents;
- (3) a secretary; and
- (4) a treasurer or chief financial officer.

(b) The officers, other than the president or a general manager, shall not have the authority to bind the cooperative except as authorized by the board.

Subd. 2. Additional officers. The board may elect additional officers as the articles or bylaws authorize or require.

Subd. 3. Treasurer and secretary may be combined. The offices of secretary and treasurer may be combined.

Subd. 4. Officers must be members. All officers must be members of the cooperative.

Subd. 5. Election of officers. Officers of the cooperative shall be elected at such intervals as the articles or bylaws authorize or require and will hold office at the pleasure of the board.

Subd. 6. Removal of officers. Upon an affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the board, any officer may be removed with or without cause, and the officer's successor selected at any regular meeting of the board, or at any special meeting of the board called for such a purpose.

Subd. 7. General manager. The board may employ a general manager to manage the day-to-day affairs and business of the cooperative, and if a general manager is employed, the general manager shall have the authority to implement the functions, duties, and obligations of the cooperative except as restricted by the board. The general manager shall not exercise authority reserved to the board or the members under this chapter, the articles, or the bylaws.

History: 2024 c 96 art 1 s 37

MEMBERS

308C.501 MEMBERS.

Subdivision 1. Requirement. A cooperative shall have one or more members.

Subd. 2. Classes of members. A cooperative may have one class of members, all of whom are occupant members or a cooperative may have more than one class of members as long as one class of members are occupant members.

Subd. 3. Member violations. (a) A member who knowingly, intentionally, or repeatedly violates a provision of the articles, bylaws, occupancy agreement, proprietary lease or rules, policies, and procedures promulgated by the board may be required by the board to surrender the member's membership interest and occupancy rights or any other financial rights of membership interests of any class owned by a member, or both.

(b) The cooperative shall refund to the member for the surrendered membership interest at the lesser of the book value or the price paid the member for the membership interest payable in not more than seven years from the date of surrender.

(c) Membership interests required to be surrendered may be reissued or be retired and canceled by the board.

(d) The board may establish a procedure for members to dispute the basis for an alleged violation.

Subd. 4. Inspection of cooperative records by member. (a) A member is entitled to inspect and copy, at the member's expense, during regular business hours at a reasonable location specified by the cooperative, any of the records described in section 308C.245 if the member meets the requirements of paragraph (b) and gives the cooperative written demand at least five business days before the date on which the member wishes to inspect and copy the records. Notwithstanding the provisions of this subdivision or any provisions of section 308C.245, a cooperative may limit a member's right to inspect or copy any records of the cooperative relating to the amount of equity capital in the cooperative held by any person or any accounts receivable or other amounts due the cooperative from any person, or any personnel records or employment records of any employee.

(b) To be entitled to inspect and copy permitted records, the member shall meet the following requirements:

(1) the demand is made in good faith and for a proper cooperative business purpose;

(2) the member describes with reasonable particularity the purpose and the records the member desires to inspect; and

(3) the records are directly connected with the described purpose.

(c) The right of inspection granted by this subdivision shall not be abolished or limited by the articles, bylaws, or any actions of the board or the members.

(d) This subdivision does not affect:

(1) the right of a member to inspect records to the same extent as any other litigant if the member is in litigation with the cooperative; or

(2) the power of a court to compel the production of the cooperative's records for examination.

(e) Notwithstanding any other provision in this subdivision, if the records to be inspected or copied are in active use or storage and, therefore, not available at the time otherwise provided for inspection or copying, the cooperative shall notify the member and shall set a date and hour within three business days of the date otherwise set in this subdivision for the inspection or copying.

(f) A member's agent or attorney has the same inspection and copying rights as the member. The right to copy records under this subdivision includes, if reasonable, the right to receive copies made by photographic copying, xerographic copying, or other means. The cooperative may impose a reasonable charge, covering the costs of labor and material, for copies of any documents provided to the member. The charge may not exceed the estimated cost of production and reproduction of the records.

(g) If a cooperative refuses to allow a member, or the member's agent or attorney, who complies with this subdivision to inspect or copy any records that the member is entitled to inspect or copy within a prescribed time limit or, if none, within a reasonable time, the district court of the county in this state where the cooperative's principal office is located or, if it has no principal office in this state, the district court of the county in which its registered office is located may, on application of the member, summarily order the inspection or copying of the records demanded at the cooperative's expense.

(h) If a court orders inspection or copying of the records demanded, unless the cooperative proves that it refused inspection or copying in good faith because it had a reasonable basis for doubt about the right of the member or the member's agent or attorney to inspect or copy the records demanded:

(1) the court may order the losing party to pay the prevailing party's reasonable costs, including reasonable attorney fees;

(2) the court may order the losing party to pay the prevailing party for any damages the prevailing party shall have incurred by reason of the subject matter of the litigation;

(3) if inspection or copying is ordered under this paragraph, the court may order the cooperative to pay the member's inspection and copying expenses;

(4) the court may grant either party any other remedy provided by law; and

(5) the court may impose reasonable restrictions on the use or distribution of the records by the demanding member.

As used in this section, "housing for older persons" means housing:

(1) intended for, and solely occupied by, persons 62 years of age or older, except that:

(i) as to joint holders of a membership, only one person need be age 62 or older; and

(ii) as to a trust that is the holder of a membership pursuant to the requirements of this chapter, only one beneficiary who intends to occupy the cooperative as a member need be age 62 or older; or

(2) intended and operated for occupancy by persons 55 years of age or older, and:

(i) at least 80 percent of the occupied units are occupied by at least one person who is 55 years of age or older;

(ii) the housing facility or community publishes and adheres to policies and procedures that demonstrate the intent required under this clause; and

(iii) the housing facility or community complies with rules issued by the secretary of housing and urban development for verification of occupancy, which shall:

(A) provide for verification by reliable surveys and affidavits; and

(B) include examples of the types of policies and procedures relevant to a determination of compliance with the requirement of item (ii). Such surveys and affidavits shall be admissible in administrative and judicial proceedings for the purposes of such verification.

Subd. 2. Persons of low or moderate income. In accordance with the applicable provisions of the Fair Housing Act, Title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1968, as amended; United States Code, title 42, chapter 3607, section 807(a)(b)(1)(2), membership and housing in a cooperative governed by this chapter may be restricted to persons of low or moderate income.

Subd. 3. Persons by activity. Membership and housing in a cooperative governed by this chapter may be restricted to persons engaged in a specific activity or persons who meet a specified characteristic based on past activity provided such restriction does not violate any provision of the Fair Housing Act, Title VIII of the Civil Rights Act of 1968, as amended; United States Code, title 42, chapter 3607, section 807(a)(b)(1)(2).

Subd. 4. Additional restrictions. Cooperatives governed by this chapter may impose the same age or income restrictions on any nonmember occupants the board may permit to reside at the housing cooperative.

308C.505 MEMBER NOT LIABLE FOR COOPERATIVE DEBTS.

A member is not, merely on the account of that status, personally liable for the acts, debts, liabilities, or obligations of a cooperative. A member is liable for any unpaid subscription for the membership interest, 308C.511 REGULAR MEMBER MEETINGS.

Subdivision 1. Annual meeting. Regular member meetings shall be held annually at a time determined by the board, unless more frequent meetings are provided for in the bylaws.

Subd. 2. Location. The regular member meeting shall be held at the principal place of business of the cooperative or at another conveniently located place as determined by the bylaws or the board.

Subd. 3. Business and fiscal reports. Unless additional information is required by the bylaws, the officers shall submit reports to the members at the regular member meetings covering the business of the cooperative for the previous fiscal year that show the financial condition of the cooperative at the close of the fiscal year.

Subd. 4. Election of directors. All directors shall be elected at the regular member meeting for the terms of office prescribed in the bylaws.

Subd. 5. Notice. The cooperative shall give notice of regular member meetings by personal delivery of the meeting notice to each member or mailing the regular member meeting notice to each member at the member's post office address as it appears on the membership book of the cooperative, or by other notification approved by the board and agreed to by the members. The regular member meeting notice shall be published or otherwise given by approved method at least two weeks before the date of the meeting, or mailed at least 15 days, but not more than 30 days before the date of the meeting.

Subd. 6. Waiver and objections. A member may waive notice of a meeting of members. A waiver of notice by a member entitled to notice is effective whether given before, at, or after the meeting, and whether given in writing, orally, or by attendance. Attendance by a member at a meeting is a waiver of notice of that meeting, except where the member objects at the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened, or objects before a vote on an item of business because the item may not lawfully be considered at that meeting and does not participate in the consideration of the item at that meeting.

History: 2024 c 96 art 1 s 41

308C.515 SPECIAL MEMBER MEETINGS.

Subdivision 1. Calling meeting. Special member meetings of the members may be called by:

(1) a majority vote of the board; or

Subd. 2. Notice. The cooperative shall give notice of a special member meeting by mailing the special member meeting notice to each member personally at the person's post office address as it appears on the membership book of the cooperative or an alternative method approved by the board and the member individually or the members generally. The special member meeting notice shall state the time, place, and purpose of the special member meeting. The special member meeting notice shall be issued within ten days from and after the date of the presentation of a member petition, and the special member meeting shall be held within 30 days after the date of the presentation of the member petition.

Subd. 3. Waiver and objections. A member may waive notice of a special member meeting. A waiver of notice by a member entitled to notice is effective whether given before, at, or after the meeting, and whether given in writing, orally, or by attendance. Attendance by a member at a meeting is a waiver of notice of that meeting, except where the member objects at the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened, or objects before a vote on an item of business because the item may not lawfully be considered at the meeting, and does not participate in the consideration of the item at that meeting.

Subdivision 1. Certificate of mailing. After mailing special or regular member meeting notices or otherwise delivering the notices, the cooperative shall execute a certificate containing the date of mailing or delivery of the notice and a statement that the special or regular member meeting notices were mailed or delivered as prescribed by law.

Subd. 2. Matter of record. The certificate shall be made a part of the record of the meeting.

Subd. 3. Failure to receive meeting notice. Failure of a member to receive a special or regular member meeting notice does not invalidate an action taken by the members at a member meeting.

History: 2024 c 96 art 1 s 43

308C.525 QUORUM.

Subdivision 1. Quorum. At any annual or special meeting of the members, unless other increased by the bylaws, a quorum necessary for the transaction of business shall be ten percent of the total number of members.

The attendance of a sufficient number of members to constitute a quorum shall be established by a registration of the members of the cooperative present at the meeting. The registration shall be verified by the president or the secretary of the cooperative and shall be reported in the minutes of the meeting.

Subd. 3. Meeting action invalid without quorum. An action by a cooperative is not valid or legal in the absence of a quorum at the meeting at which the action was taken.

History: 2024 c 96 art 1 s 44

308C.531 REMOTE COMMUNICATIONS FOR MEMBER MEETINGS.

Subdivision 1. Construction and application. This section shall be construed and applied to:

- (1) facilitate remote communication consistent with other applicable law; and
- (2) be consistent with reasonable practices concerning remote communication and with the continued expansion of those practices.

Subd. 2. Member meetings held solely by means of remote communication. To the extent authorized in the articles or the bylaws and determined by the board, a regular or special meeting of members may be held solely by any combination of means of remote communication through which the members may participate in the meeting, if notice of the meeting is given to every owner of membership interests entitled to vote as would be required by this chapter for a meeting, and if the membership interests held by the members participating in the meeting would be sufficient to constitute a quorum at a meeting. Participation by a member by that means constitutes presence at the meeting in person if all the other requirements of this chapter for the meeting are met.

Subd. 3. Participation in member meetings by means of remote communication. To the extent authorized in the articles or the bylaws and determined by the board, a member not physically present in person at a regular or special meeting of members may, by means of remote communication, participate in a meeting of members held at a designated place. Participation by a member by that means constitutes presence at the meeting in person if all the other requirements of this chapter for the meeting are met.

Subd. 4. Requirements for meetings held solely by means of remote communication and for participation by means of remote communication. In any meeting of members held solely by means of remote communication under subdivision 2 or in any meeting of members held at a designated place in which one or more members participate by means of remote communication under subdivision 3:

(1) the cooperative shall implement reasonable measures to verify that each person deemed present and entitled to vote at the meeting by means of remote communication is a member; and

(2) the cooperative shall implement reasonable measures to provide each member participating by means of remote communication with a reasonable opportunity to participate in the meeting, including an opportunity to:

(i) read or hear the proceedings of the meeting substantially concurrently with those proceedings;

(ii) if allowed by the procedures governing the meeting, have the member's remarks heard or read by other participants in the meeting substantially concurrently with the making of those remarks; and

(iii) if otherwise entitled, vote on matters submitted to the members.

Subd. 5. Notice to members. (a) Any notice to members given by the cooperative under any provision of this chapter, the articles, or the bylaws by a form of electronic communication consented to by the member to whom the notice is given, is effective when given. The notice is deemed given:

(1) if by facsimile communication, when directed to a telephone number at which the member has consented to receive notice;

(2) if by electronic mail, when directed to an electronic mail address at which the member has consented to receive notice;

(3) if by a posting on an electronic network on which the member has consented to receive notice, together with separate notice to the member of the specific posting, upon the later of:

(i) the posting; and

(ii) the giving of the separate notice; and

(4) if by any other form of electronic communication by which the member has consented to receive notice, when directed to the member.

(b) An affidavit of the secretary, other authorized officer, or authorized agent of the cooperative that the notice has been given by a form of electronic communication is, in the absence of fraud, prima facie evidence of the facts stated in the affidavit.

(c) Consent by a member to notice given by electronic communication may be given in writing or by authenticated electronic communication. The cooperative is entitled to rely on any consent so given until revoked by the member, provided that no revocation affects the validity of any notice given before receipt by the cooperative of revocation of the consent.

Subd. 6. Revocation. Any ballot, vote, authorization, or consent submitted by electronic communication under this chapter may be revoked by the member submitting the ballot, vote, authorization, or consent so long as the revocation is received by a director or the chief executive officer of the cooperative at or before the meeting or before an action without a meeting is effective.

Subd. 7. Waiver. Waiver of notice by a member of a meeting by means of authenticated electronic communication may be given in the manner provided for the regular or special meeting. Participation in a meeting by means of remote communication described in subdivisions 2 and 3 is a waiver of notice of that meeting, except where the member objects at the beginning of the meeting to the transaction of business because the meeting is not lawfully called or convened, or objects before a vote on an item of business because the item may not lawfully be considered at the meeting and does not participate in the consideration of the item at that meeting.

308C.535 ACT OF MEMBERS.

Subdivision 1. Action of affirmative vote of members. (a) The members shall take action by the affirmative vote of a majority of the membership interests present and entitled to vote on that item of business.

(b) If the articles or bylaws require a larger proportion than is required by this chapter for a particular action, the articles or bylaws shall have control over the provisions of this chapter.

Subd. 2. Greater quorum or voting requirements. (a) The articles or bylaws adopted by the members may provide for a greater quorum or voting requirement for members or voting groups than is provided for by this chapter.

(b) An amendment to the articles or bylaws that adds, changes, or deletes a greater quorum or voting requirement shall meet the same quorum requirement and be adopted by the same vote and voting groups required to take action under the quorum and voting requirements then in effect or proposed to be adopted, whichever is greater.

History: 2024 c 96 art 1 s 46

308C.541 ACTION WITHOUT A MEETING.

Subdivision 1. Method. An action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the members may be taken by written action signed or consented to by authenticated electronic communication, by a majority of the entire membership of record or such other percentage of membership as is defined in the cooperative's articles of incorporation or bylaws, that would be required to take the same action at a meeting of the members at which all members were present.

Subd. 2. Effective time. The written action is effective when signed or consented to by authenticated electronic communication by the required members, unless a different effective time is provided in the written action.

Subd. 3. Notice and liability. When written action is permitted to be taken by less than all members, all members must be notified immediately of its text and effective date. Failure to provide the notice does not invalidate the written action. A member who does not sign or consent to the written action has no liability for the action or actions taken by the written action.

308C.545 MEMBER VOTING RIGHTS.

Subdivision 1. Generally. One membership shall be issued by the cooperative for each dwelling unit or lot in the project such that the resulting number of memberships outstanding at all times is equal to the number of dwelling units or lots in the project. Each membership shall have one vote in the affairs of the cooperative. If the cooperative has both occupant and nonoccupant members, on any matter of the cooperative, the entire occupant members voting power shall be voted collectively based upon the vote of the majority of occupant members voting on the issue and the collective vote of the nonoccupant members shall be a majority of the vote cast unless otherwise provided in the bylaws. The bylaws may not reduce the collective occupant member vote to less than 15 percent of the total vote on matters of the cooperative. A nonoccupant member has the voting rights in accordance with nonoccupant membership interests as granted in the bylaws, subject to the provisions of this chapter.

Subd. 2. Right to vote at meeting. A member may exercise voting rights on any matter that is before the members as prescribed in the articles or bylaws at a member meeting from the time the member arrives at the member meeting, unless the articles or bylaws specify an earlier and specific time for closing the right to vote.

Subd. 3. Voting method. A member's vote at a member meeting shall be in person or by mail if a mail vote is authorized by the board or by alternative method if authorized by the board.

Subd. 4. Absentee ballots. (a) A member who is or will be absent from a member meeting may vote by mail or by an approved alternative method on the ballot prescribed in this subdivision on any motion, resolution, or amendment that the board submits for vote by mail or alternative method to the members.

(b) The ballot shall be in the form prescribed by the board and contain:

- (1) the exact text of the proposed motion, resolution, or amendment to be acted on at the meeting; and
- (2) the text of the motion, resolution, or amendment for which the member may indicate an affirmative or negative vote.

(c) The member shall express a choice by marking an appropriate choice on the ballot and mail, deliver, or otherwise submit the ballot to the cooperative in a plain, sealed envelope inside another envelope bearing the member's name or by an alternative method approved by the board.

(d) A properly executed ballot shall be accepted by the board and counted as the vote of the absent member at the meeting.

Subd. 5. Jointly owned membership interest. If membership interest is owned by two or more individuals, any individual may vote on a matter that is before the members, unless the cooperative receives written notice denying the authority of an individual to vote on the behalf of the jointly owned membership interest.

308C.571 SALE OF PROPERTY AND ASSETS.

Subdivision 1. Member approval. A cooperative, by affirmative vote of a majority of the board present, may sell, lease, transfer, or otherwise dispose of all or substantially all of its property and assets, including its good will, not in the usual and regular course of its business, and grant a security interest in all or substantially all of the cooperatives property and assets whether or not in the usual and regular course of its business upon those terms and conditions and for those considerations, which may be money, securities, or other instruments for the payment of money or other property, as the board considers expedient, when approved at a regular or special meeting of the members by the affirmative vote of the owners of a majority of the voting power of the interests entitled to vote. Written notice of the meeting must be given to all members whether or not they are entitled to vote at the meeting. The written notice must state that a purpose of the meeting is to consider the sale, lease, transfer, or other disposition of all or substantially all of the property and assets of the cooperative.

Subd. 2. Confirmatory documents. Confirmatory deeds, assignments, or similar instruments to evidence a sale, lease, transfer, or other disposition may be signed and delivered at any time in the name of the transferor by its current president of the board or authorized agents.

Subd. 3. Liability of transferee. The transferee is liable for the debts, obligations, and liabilities of the transferor only to the extent provided in the contract or agreement between the transferee and the transferor or to the extent provided by law.

MEMBERSHIP INTERESTS

308C.601 MEMBERSHIP INTERESTS.

Subdivision 1. Amounts and divisions of membership interests. The authorized amount and divisions of occupant membership interests and, if authorized, nonoccupant membership interests may be increased, decreased, established, or altered, in accordance with the restrictions in this chapter by amending the articles or bylaws at a regular members' meeting or at a special members' meeting called for the purpose of the amendment.

Subd. 2. Issuance of membership interests. Authorized membership interests may be issued on terms and conditions prescribed in the articles, bylaws, or if authorized in the articles or bylaws as determined by the board. The cooperative shall disclose to any person or entity acquiring membership interests to be issued by the cooperative, the organization, capital structure, and known business prospects and risks of the cooperative, the nature of the governance and financial rights of the membership interest being acquired and of other classes of membership and membership interests.

Subd. 3. Occupant membership interests. The occupant membership interests collectively shall have not less than 60 percent of the cooperative's financial rights to profit allocations and distributions. If authorized in the original articles as filed, or articles or bylaws adopted by an affirmative vote of the occupant members, or the articles or bylaws are amended by the affirmative vote of occupant members, then the cooperative's financial rights to profit allocations and distributions to occupant members collectively may be not less than 15 percent.

Subd. 4. Transferring or selling membership interests. After issuance by the cooperative, membership interests in a cooperative may only be sold or transferred with the approval of the board. The board may adopt resolutions prescribing procedures to prospectively approve transfers.

Subd. 5. Nonoccupant membership interests. If authorized by the articles, the cooperative may solicit and issue nonoccupant membership interests on terms and conditions determined by the board and disclosed in the articles, bylaws, or by separate disclosure to the members. Each member acquiring nonoccupant membership interests shall sign a member control agreement or agree to the conditions of the bylaws, either of which shall describe the rights and obligations of the member as it relates to the nonoccupant membership interests, the financial and governance rights, the transferability of the nonoccupant membership interests, the division and allocations of profits and losses among the membership interests and membership classes, and financial rights upon liquidation. If the articles or bylaws do not otherwise provide for the allocation of the profits and losses between occupant membership interests and nonoccupant membership interests, then the allocation of profits and losses among nonoccupant membership interests individually and occupant membership interests collectively shall be allocated on the basis of the value of contributions to capital made according to the occupant membership interests collectively and the nonoccupant membership interests individually to the extent the contributions have been accepted by the cooperative. Distributions of cash or other assets of the cooperative shall be allocated among the membership interests as provided in the articles and bylaws, subject to the provisions of this chapter. If not otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws, distributions shall be made on the basis of value of the capital contributions of the occupant membership interests collectively and the nonoccupant membership interests to the extent the contributions have been accepted by the cooperative.

Subd. 6. Cooperative first right to purchase membership interests. The articles or bylaws may provide that the cooperative or the occupant members, individually or collectively, have the first privilege of purchasing the membership interests of any class of membership interests offered for sale. The first privilege to purchase membership interests may be satisfied by notice to other members that the membership interests are for sale and a procedure by which members may proceed to attempt to purchase and acquire the membership interests. A membership interest acquired by the cooperative may be held to be reissued or may be retired and canceled.

Subd. 7. Payment for nonoccupant membership interests. Subject to the provisions in the articles and bylaws, a member may dissent from and obtain payment for the fair value of the member's nonoccupant membership interests in the cooperative if the articles or bylaws are amended in a manner that materially and adversely affects the rights and preferences of the nonoccupant membership interests of the dissenting member. The dissenting member shall file a notice of intent to demand fair value of the membership interest with the records officer of the cooperative within 30 days after the amendment of the bylaws and notice of the amendment to members, otherwise the right of the dissenting member to demand payment of fair value for the membership interest is waived. If a proposed amendment of the articles or bylaws must be approved by the members, a member who is entitled to dissent and who wishes to exercise dissenter's rights shall file a notice to demand fair value of the membership interest with the records officer of the cooperative before the vote on the proposed action and shall not vote in favor of the proposed action, otherwise the right to demand fair value for the membership interest by the dissenting member is waived. After receipt of the dissenting member's demand notice and approval of the amendment, the cooperative has 60 days to rescind the amendment or otherwise the cooperative shall remit the fair value for the member's interest to the dissenting member by 180 days after receipt of the notice. Upon receipt of the fair value for the membership interest, the member has no further member rights in the cooperative.

308C.602 TITLE TO MEMBERSHIP IN THE COOPERATIVE.

(a) Title to membership in a cooperative governed by this chapter may be held by:

(1) a natural person who satisfies the member restrictions set forth in this chapter;

(2) a natural person who does not satisfy the restrictions set forth in this chapter but who purchases a membership interest for a natural person who satisfies the restrictions set forth in this chapter and who is a member of the cooperative and shall, for purposes of this section, be referred to as a "third-party purchaser";

(3) a natural person who is the trustee of a trust, except as prohibited, limited, or otherwise provided by the cooperative. If title to a membership interest is held by a trustee of a trust, a beneficiary of the trust must be a natural person who satisfies the restriction set forth in this chapter and who exercises the right of occupancy appurtenant to membership. In order to apply for membership in the cooperative following the death of a member or members who occupied the cooperative under the trust's title, a successor beneficiary of the trust must satisfy the restriction structure set forth in this chapter. The cooperative may require successor beneficiaries who did not occupy the dwelling unit with the deceased cooperative member or members to offer the membership interest back to the cooperative for sale pursuant to any cooperative right of first refusal, cooperative purchase option, or other membership sale requirements or restrictions established by the cooperative in its bylaws or through the cooperative's policies, rules, or regulations;

(4) an adult natural person remainderman, subject to a life estate retained by a natural person who satisfies the restrictions set forth in this chapter and who exercises the right of occupancy appurtenant to membership in the dwelling unit, except as prohibited, limited, or otherwise provided by the bylaws. In order to apply for membership in the cooperative following the death of the life tenant member or members of the cooperative, a remainderman must satisfy the age restriction structure set forth in this chapter for membership in the cooperative. Following the death of the life tenant member, a cooperative may require a remainderman to offer the membership interest back to the cooperative for sale pursuant to any cooperative right of first refusal, cooperative purchase option, or other membership sale requirements or restrictions established by the cooperative in its bylaws or through the cooperative's policies, rules, or regulations;

(5) transfer on death (TOD) beneficiaries upon the death of a member in the cooperative and in accordance with the Minnesota Uniform TOD Security Registration Act, sections 524.6-301, et. seq., except as prohibited, limited, or otherwise provided by the cooperative. A natural person who, as a TOD beneficiary, becomes the title holder of a membership interest in the cooperative following the death of a member must satisfy the restriction structure set forth in this chapter in order to apply for membership in the cooperative. A cooperative may require a TOD beneficiary who becomes the title holder of a membership interest in the cooperative following the death of a member to offer the membership interest back to the cooperative for sale pursuant to any cooperative right of first refusal, cooperative purchase option, or other membership sale requirements or restrictions the cooperative may have developed in its bylaws or through the cooperative's policies, rules, or regulations; and

(6) with respect to nonoccupant membership interest, any person as defined by this chapter.

(b) In each instance in which title to a membership interest is held by a trustee, remainderman, or third-party purchaser who purchases a membership interest for a member who will occupy the cooperative, the trustee, remainderman, or third-party purchaser shall agree to abide by the cooperative's articles, bylaws, occupancy agreement or proprietary lease of the member, and rules, policies, and regulations of the cooperative, and shall not, by virtue of their status of holding title to the membership interest, have any voting rights that a member of the cooperative would otherwise have by reason of being the holder of a membership certificate. All voting rights shall be vested solely with the member who occupies the cooperative.

308C.603 DEVELOPER RIGHTS, RESTRICTIONS, AND OBLIGATIONS.

Subdivision 1. Developer control. If a developer causes a cooperative to be organized under this chapter, the developer shall have the right to appoint an initial board of directors consisting of three persons. The developer's control of the board shall terminate on the date of the first annual meeting of members. The first annual meeting shall occur on or about 60 days after the date of the certificate of occupancy issued for the project by the municipality in which the project is situated and subject to any requirements under the mortgage for permanent financing related to the project.

Subd. 2. Termination of developer's contracts. Any contract, lease, or license binding the cooperative and to which the developer or an affiliate of the developer is a party may be terminated without penalty by the cooperative upon not less than 90 days' notice if entered into prior to termination of the period of developer control. The notice shall be in writing and is effective upon hand delivery or upon mailing properly addressed with postage prepaid and deposited in the United States mail. This subdivision does not apply to any mortgage encumbering the cooperative's real estate.

Subd. 3. Developer's standard of conduct during period of developer control. (a) During the period of the developer's control of the cooperative, the developer and any of the developer's representatives who are acting as officers or directors of the cooperative shall be subject to the provisions of sections 308C.401 and 308C.455.

(b) At such time as the developer's control of the cooperative terminates, the developer shall deliver to the board exclusive control of all funds of the cooperative, all contracts and agreements to which the cooperative was or is a party, all corporate records of the cooperative, and all plans and specifications relating to the project.

Subd. 4. Developer's obligation for assessments. (a) Prior to the commencement of occupancy of the project by the members, the developer shall pay all accrued expenses of the cooperative.

(b) After the commencement of occupancy of the project by the members, the developer shall pay all common expenses and payments to reserves allocated to the dwelling unit appurtenant to the membership interests that have not been conveyed to members, and the payment obligation shall remain in effect until each unissued membership interest has been conveyed to a member.

History: 2024 c 96 art 1 s 52

308C.605 ASSIGNMENT OF FINANCIAL RIGHTS.

Subdivision 1. Assignment of financial rights permitted. Except as provided in subdivision 3, a member's financial rights are transferable in whole or in part.

Subd. 2. Effect of assignment of financial rights. An assignment of a member's financial rights entitles the assignee to receive, to the extent assigned, only the share of profits and losses and the distributions, if any, to which the assignor would otherwise be entitled. An assignment of a member's financial rights does not dissolve the cooperative and does not entitle or empower the assignee to become a member, to exercise any governance rights, to receive any notices from the cooperative, or to cause dissolution. The assignment shall not allow the assignee to control the member's exercise of governance or voting rights.

Subd. 3. Restrictions of assignment of financial rights. (a) A restriction on the assignment of financial rights may be imposed in the articles, in the bylaws, in an operating agreement, by a resolution adopted by the members, by an agreement among or other written action by the members, or by an agreement among or other written action by the members and the cooperative. A restriction is not binding with respect to financial rights reflected in the required records before the adoption of the restriction, unless the owners of those financial rights are parties to the agreement or voted in favor of the restriction.

(b) Subject to paragraph (c), a written restriction on the assignment of financial rights that is not manifestly unreasonable under the circumstances and is noted conspicuously in the required records may be enforced against the owner of the restricted financial rights or a successor or transferee of the owner, including a pledgee or a legal representative. Unless noted conspicuously in the required records, a restriction, even though permitted by this section, is ineffective against a person without knowledge of the restriction.

(c) With regard to restrictions on the assignment of financial rights, a would-be assignee of financial rights is entitled to rely on a statement of membership interest issued by the cooperative. A restriction on the assignment of financial rights, which is otherwise valid and in effect at the time of the issuance of a statement of membership interest but which is not reflected in that statement, is ineffective against an assignee who takes an assignment in reliance on the statement.

(d) Notwithstanding any provision of law, articles, bylaws, operating agreement, other agreement, resolution, or action to the contrary, a security interest in a member's financial rights may be foreclosed and otherwise enforced, and a secured party may assign a member's financial rights in accordance with chapter 336, without the consent or approval of the member whose financial rights are subject to the security interest.

History: 2024 c 96 art 1 s 53

308C.611 NATURE OF A MEMBERSHIP INTEREST AND STATEMENT OF INTEREST OWNED.

Subdivision 1. Generally. A membership interest is personal property. A member has no interest in specific cooperative property except the right to occupy a dwelling unit pursuant to an occupancy agreement, the proprietary lease, and use of the common elements. All property of the cooperative is property of the cooperative itself.

Subd. 2. Lien on membership interest. The cooperative may take a lien on the membership interest and any dwelling unit represented by the membership certificate for all sums due and to become due under the articles, bylaws, occupancy agreement, and propriety lease whether by means of assessments or otherwise. The board may refuse consent to the transfer of the membership interest represented by the membership certificate until all outstanding sums due under the occupancy agreement are paid or for other reasonable cause described in the bylaws.

Subd. 3. Terms of membership interests. All the membership interests of a cooperative must:

(1) be of one class, without series, unless the articles or bylaws establish or authorize the board to establish more than one class or series within classes;

(2) be occupant membership interests and if authorized nonoccupant membership interest subject to this chapter entitled to vote as provided in section 308C.545, and have equal rights and preferences in all matters not otherwise provided for by the board and to the extent that the articles or bylaws have fixed the relative rights and preferences of different classes and series; and

(3) if applicable due to the nature of the cooperative, share profits and losses and are entitled to distributions as provided in sections 308C.721 and 308C.725.

Subd. 4. Rights of judgment creditor. On application to a court of competent jurisdiction by any judgment creditor of a member, the court may charge a member with payment of the unsatisfied amount of the judgment with interest. To the extent so charged, the judgment creditor has only the rights of an assignee of a member's financial rights, if any. This chapter does not deprive any member or a judgment creditor who is an assignee of financial rights of the benefit of any exemption laws applicable to the membership interest. This section is the sole and exclusive remedy of a judgment creditor with respect to the judgment debtor's membership interest.

Subd. 5. Procedure for fixing terms. (a) Subject to any restrictions in the articles or bylaws, the power granted in this subdivision may be exercised by a resolution or resolutions establishing a class or series, setting forth the designation of the class or series, and fixing the relative rights and preferences of the class or series. Any of the rights and preferences of a class or series established in the articles, bylaws, or by resolution of the board:

(1) may be made dependent upon facts ascertainable outside the articles or bylaws or outside the resolution or resolutions establishing the class or series, if the manner in which the facts operate upon the rights and preferences of the class or series is clearly and expressly set forth in the articles or bylaws or in the resolution or resolutions establishing the class or series; and

(2) may include by reference some or all of the terms of any agreements, contracts, or other arrangements entered into by the cooperative in connection with the establishment of the class or series if the cooperative retains at its principal executive office a copy of the agreements, contracts, or other arrangements or the portions will be included by reference.

(b) A statement setting forth the name of the cooperative and the text of the resolution and certifying the adoption of the resolution and the date of adoption must be given to the members before the acceptance of any contributions for which the resolution creates rights or preferences not set forth in the articles or bylaws. Where the members have received notice of the creation of membership interests with rights or preferences not set forth in the articles or bylaws before the acceptance of the contributions with respect to the membership interests, the statement may be filed any time within one year after the acceptance of the contributions. The resolution is effective three days after delivery to the members is deemed effective by the board, or, if the statement is not required to be given to the members before the acceptance of contributions, on the date of its adoption by the directors.

Subd. 6. Specific terms. Without limiting the authority granted in this section, a cooperative may have membership interests of a class or series:

(1) subject to the right of the cooperative to redeem any of those membership interests at the price fixed for their redemption by the articles or bylaws or by the board;

(2) entitling the members to cumulative, partially cumulative, or noncumulative distributions;

(3) having preference over any class or series of membership interests for the payment of distributions of any or all kinds;

(4) convertible into membership interests of any other class or any series of the same or another class; or

(5) having full, partial, or no voting rights, except as provided in section 308B.555.

Subd. 7. Grant of a security interest. For the purpose of any law relating to security interests, membership interests, governance or voting rights, and financial rights are each to be characterized as provided in section 336.8-103, paragraph (c).

Subd. 8. Powers of estate of a deceased or incompetent member. (a) If a member who is an individual dies or a court of competent jurisdiction adjudges the member to be incompetent to manage the member's person or property, or an order for relief under the bankruptcy code is entered with respect to the member, the member's executor, administrator, guardian, conservator, trustee, or other legal representative may exercise all of the member's rights for the purpose of settling the estate or administering the member's property. If a member is a business entity, trust, or other entity and is dissolved, terminated, or placed by a court in receivership or bankruptcy, the powers of that member may be exercised by its legal representative or successor.

(b) If an event referred to in paragraph (a) causes the termination of a member's membership interest and the termination does not result in dissolution, then subject to the articles and bylaws:

(1) as provided in section 308C.605, the terminated member's interest will be considered to be merely that of an assignee of the financial rights owned before the termination of membership; and

(2) the rights to be exercised by the legal representative of the terminated member will be limited accordingly.

Subd. 9. Liability of subscribers and members with respect to membership interests. A subscriber for membership interests or a member of a cooperative is under no obligation to the cooperative or its creditors with respect to the membership interests subscribed for or owned, except to pay to the cooperative the full consideration for which the membership interests are issued or to be issued.

History: 2024 c 96 art 1 s 54

308C.612 SENIOR HOUSING COOPERATIVE OFFERING DOCUMENTS; GENERAL PROVISIONS.

Subdivision 1. Generally. The senior housing cooperative organized under this chapter shall provide to each subscriber for a membership in the cooperative: (1) an occupancy agreement or proprietary lease; (2) the articles; (3) the bylaws; (4) an annualized budget for the current fiscal period; and (5)(i) for the initial purchase of a membership interest to which a particular dwelling unit is appurtenant, an information bulletin and a subscription agreement; and (ii) for any purchase of a membership interest after its initial purchase, a resale disclosure statement and a membership purchase and sale agreement, all of which shall minimally include the contents of the provisions set forth in subdivisions 2 to 6, as applicable.

- (7) a statement disclosing to the extent of the cooperative's or an affiliate of a cooperative's actual knowledge, after reasonable inquiry, any unsatisfied judgments or lawsuits to which the cooperative is a party, and the status of those lawsuits which are material to the project or the dwelling unit appurtenant to a membership being purchased;

(14) a statement that purchase and sales of memberships and rights under occupancy agreements are not for speculative purposes and that investments in the cooperative by members are for the sole purpose of securing and acquiring a dwelling unit for their residential use and benefit.

(b) A cooperative shall promptly amend the information bulletin to reflect any material change in the information required by this chapter.

Subd. 3. Resale disclosure certificate. (a) In the event of a resale of a membership interest by either the departing member or by the cooperative, the departing member or the cooperative, as applicable, shall furnish to the purchaser before the execution of any purchase and sale agreement for the applicable membership interest the following documents relating to the cooperative:

(1) copies of the articles and bylaws, any rules and regulations, and any amendments thereto; and

Money in the account shall be held solely for the benefit of the subscribers until transferred to the account of the cooperative as provided in clauses (2) and (5). (ii) if a purchaser receives an information bulletin more than ten days before signing a subscription agreement, the purchaser cannot cancel the subscription agreement pursuant to this ten-day cancellation.

Subd. 5. Membership purchase and sale agreements. In the event of a resale of a membership interest by either the departing member or by the cooperative, a membership purchase and sale agreement shall be utilized as the contract for purchase of the membership interest rather than a subscription agreement. A membership purchase and sale agreement must contain the following provisions:

- (1) a statement disclosing the identities of the selling and purchasing parties;
- (2) a statement acknowledging that the purchase of a membership interest in the cooperative constitutes personal property and not an interest in real estate;
- (3) a statement of the purchase price for the membership interest, including any earnest money due and payable, the date on which the membership interest is due and payable, and any sum which may be due and payable upon closing;
- (4) a schedule of any items of personal property owned by the seller that the buyer is purchasing as part of the membership interest;

- (10) a statement of the anticipated closing date for the purchase of the membership interest;
- (11) a statement of the remedies available to the seller or buyer as a result of a default by the other party in its obligation to close on the purchase of the subject membership interest;

Subd. 6. Occupancy agreement contents. The occupancy agreement must include the following provisions:

(2) a statement of when the payment of carrying charges will commence;

(3) a statement of the circumstances under which the cooperative may issue any patronage refunds or credits to members;

(4) a statement that the term of the occupancy agreement is coextensive with membership in the cooperative, a statement regarding any automatic renewal of the occupancy agreement term, and a statement of any other terms, conditions, or requirements for renewal of the occupancy agreement term;

(5) a statement of the terms under which the member or cooperative may terminate a member's occupancy agreement;

(6) a statement that the member may occupy the member's dwelling unit solely as a private residential dwelling unit;

(7) a statement outlining the member's rights, duties, and obligations under the occupancy agreement and as a member of the cooperative;

(8) a statement outlining member acts prohibited by the occupancy agreement, articles, bylaws, or the rules, regulations, and policies of the cooperative;

308C.613 BUDGET AND REPLACEMENT RESERVE REQUIREMENTS.

Subdivision 1. Requirements. The annual budget of a senior housing cooperative formed under this chapter shall include, without limitation:

- (1) the amount included in the budget as a reserve for replacement;
- (2) the amount included in the budget for the general operating reserve;
- (3) the amount included in the budget for any other reserves;
- (4) the projected common expense for each category of expenditures for the cooperative; and
- (5) the projected monthly common expense assessment for each type of dwelling unit.

Subd. 2. Replacement reserves. The cooperative shall include in its annual budgets replacement reserves projected by the board to be adequate, together with past and future contributions thereto to fund the replacement of those components of the cooperative that the cooperative is obligated to replace by reason of ordinary wear and tear or obsolescence, subject to the following:

(1) the annual budgets need not include reserves for replacement of components that have a remaining useful life of more than 30 years, unless required otherwise by the lender or mortgage insurer relative to the cooperative's master mortgage;

(2) the cooperative shall keep the replacement reserves in an account or accounts separate from the cooperative's operating funds, and shall not use or borrow from the replacement reserves to fund the cooperative's operating expenses, except that this restriction shall not affect the cooperative's authority to pledge the replacement reserves as security for a loan to the cooperative; and

(3) the cooperative shall reevaluate the adequacy of the cooperative's budgeted replacement reserves at least every third year after the filing of the cooperative's articles.

308C.614 LIEN FOR ASSESSMENTS.

(a) A senior housing cooperative formed under this chapter has a lien on a membership interest, the appurtenant occupancy agreement, and the member's associated occupancy rights for any assessment levied against that membership interest from the time the assessment becomes due. If an assessment is payable in installments, the full amount of the assessment is a lien from the time the first installment thereof becomes due. Unless the bylaws provide otherwise, any fees, charges, or payments that members must regularly pay to the cooperative are enforceable as assessments under this section. Other cooperatives formed under this chapter may authorize a lien on a membership interest, occupancy agreement, or a proprietary lease in the bylaws.

(b) A lien under this section is prior to all other liens and encumbrances on a membership certificate except (i) liens, encumbrances, or mortgages which the cooperative creates, assumes, or takes subject to, or (ii) any first security interest encumbering only the membership interest. If a first security interest encumbering a membership interest which is personal property is foreclosed, the secured party or the purchaser at the sale shall take title to the membership interest subject to unpaid assessments. This paragraph shall not affect the priority of mechanics' liens encumbering the project.

(c) Proceedings to enforce an assessment lien shall be instituted within three years after the last installment of the assessment becomes payable, or shall be barred.

(d) The member and owner of the membership interest, at the time an assessment is due, shall be personally liable to the cooperative for payment of the assessment levied against the membership interest. If there are multiple owners of the membership interest, they shall be jointly and severally liable.

(e) This section does not prohibit actions to recover sums for which paragraph (a) creates a lien nor prohibit a cooperative from taking an assignment of the membership certificate and occupancy agreement or other conveyance documents agreed upon by the parties in lieu of foreclosure.

(f) The cooperative shall furnish to a member or the member's authorized agent upon written request of the member or the authorized agent a statement setting forth the amount of unpaid assessments currently levied against the member's interest. The statement shall be furnished within ten business days after receipt of the request and is binding on the cooperative and every member.

(1) a notice of the sale or acceptance shall be served on the member 90 days prior to the sale or acceptance;

(2) the cooperative shall be entitled to its reasonable costs and attorney fees not exceeding the amount provided by section 582.01, subdivision 1a;

(3) the amount of the cooperative's lien shall be deemed to be adequate consideration for the membership interest subject to sale or acceptance, notwithstanding the value of the membership interest; and

(4) the notice of sale or acceptance shall contain the following statement in capital letters with the name of the cooperative or secured party filled in:

"THIS IS TO INFORM YOU THAT BY THIS NOTICE (fill in name of cooperative or secured party) HAS BEGUN PROCEEDINGS UNDER MINNESOTA STATUTES, CHAPTER 308C, TO FORECLOSE ON YOUR MEMBERSHIP INTEREST FOR THE REASON SPECIFIED IN THIS NOTICE. (b) If the member or occupant fails to redeem before the expiration of 90 days following delivery of the notice to the member, the cooperative may bring an action for eviction against the member and any persons occupying the dwelling unit, and in that case section 504B.291 shall not apply.

308C.616 CERTIFICATED MEMBERSHIP INTERESTS.

Subdivision 1. Certificated; uncertificated. The membership interests of a cooperative shall be either certificated or uncertificated. Each holder of certificated membership interests issued is entitled to a certificate of membership interest.

Subd. 2. Signature required. Certificates shall be signed by an agent or officer authorized in the articles or bylaws to sign share certificates or, in the absence of an authorization, by the chair or records officer of the cooperative.

Subd. 3. Signature valid. If a person signs or has a facsimile signature placed upon a certificate while the chair, an officer, transfer agent, or records officer of a cooperative, the certificate may be issued by the cooperative, even if the person has ceased to have that capacity before the certificate is issued, with the same effect as if the person had that capacity at the date of its issue.

Subd. 4. Form of certificate. A certificate representing membership interests of a cooperative shall contain on its face:

- (1) the name of the cooperative;
- (2) a statement that the cooperative is organized under the laws of this state and this chapter;
- (3) the name of the person to whom the certificate is issued;
- (4) the number and class of membership interests, and the designation of the series, if any, that the certificate represents;
- (5) a statement that the membership interests in the cooperative are subject to the articles and bylaws of the cooperative; and
- (6) any restrictions on transfer, including approval of the board, if applicable, first rights of purchase by the cooperative, and other restrictions on transfer, which may be stated by reference to the back of the certificate or to another document.

Subd. 5. Limitations set forth. A certificate representing membership interest issued by a cooperative authorized to issue membership interests of more than one class or series shall set forth upon the face or back of the certificate, or shall state that the cooperative will furnish to any member upon request and without charge, a full statement of the designations, preferences, limitations, and relative rights of the membership interests of each class or series authorized to be issued, so far as they have been determined, and the authority of the board to determine the relative rights and preferences of subsequent classes or series.

Subd. 6. Prima facie evidence. A certificate signed as provided in subdivision 2 is prima facie evidence of the ownership of the membership interests referred to in the certificate.

Subd. 7. Uncertificated membership interests. Unless uncertificated membership interests are prohibited by the articles or bylaws, a resolution approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors present may provide that some or all of any or all classes and series of its membership interests will be uncertificated membership interests. The resolution does not apply to membership interests represented by a certificate until the certificate is surrendered to the cooperative. Within a reasonable time after the issuance or transfer of uncertificated membership interests, the cooperative shall send to the new member the information required by this section to be stated on certificates. This information is not required to be sent to the new holder by a publicly held cooperative that has adopted a system of issuance, recordation, and transfer of its membership interests by electronic or other means not involving an issuance of certificates if the system complies with section 17A of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Except as otherwise expressly provided by statute, the rights and obligations of the holders of certificated and uncertificated membership interests of the same class and series are identical.

308C.621 LOST CERTIFICATES; REPLACEMENT.

Subdivision 1. Issuance. A new membership interest certificate may be issued under section 336.8-405 in place of one that is alleged to have been lost, stolen, or destroyed.

Subd. 2. Not overissue. The issuance of a new certificate under this section does not constitute an overissue of the membership interests it represents.

History: 2024 c 96 art 1 s 60

308C.625 RESTRICTION ON TRANSFER OR REGISTRATION OF MEMBERSHIP INTERESTS.

Subdivision 1. How imposed. A restriction on the transfer or registration of transfer of membership interests of a cooperative may be imposed in the articles, in the bylaws, by a resolution adopted by the members, or by an agreement among or other written action by a number of members or holders of other membership interests or among them and the cooperative. A restriction is not binding with respect to membership interests issued prior to the adoption of the restriction, unless the holders of those membership interests are parties to the agreement or voted in favor of the restriction.

Subd. 2. Restrictions permitted. A written restriction on the transfer or registration of transfer of membership interests of a cooperative that is not manifestly unreasonable under the circumstances may be enforced against the holder of the restricted membership interests or a successor or transferee of the holder, including a pledgee or a legal representative, if the restriction is either:

- (1) noted conspicuously on the face or back of the certificate;
- (2) included in this chapter or the articles or bylaws; or
- (3) included in information sent to the holders of uncertificated membership interests.

Unless a restriction is in this chapter, the articles, bylaws, noted conspicuously on the face or back of the certificate, or included in information sent to the holders of uncertificated membership interests, a restriction, even though permitted by this section, is ineffective against a person without knowledge of the restriction. A restriction under this section is deemed to be noted conspicuously and is effective if the existence of the restriction is stated on the certificate and reference is made to a separate document creating or describing the restriction.

History: 2024 c 96 art 1 s 61

OPERATING AGREEMENT308C.627 OPERATING AGREEMENT.

Subdivision 1. Authorization. A written agreement among persons who are then members, including a sole member, or who have signed subscription or contribution agreements, relating to the control of any phase of the business and affairs of the cooperative, its liquidation, dissolution and termination, or the relations among members or persons who have signed subscription or contribution agreements is valid as provided in subdivision 2. Wherever this chapter provides that a particular result may or must be obtained through a provision in the articles or bylaws, the same result can be accomplished through an operating agreement valid under this section or through a procedure established by an operating agreement valid under this section.

Subd. 2. Valid execution. Other than occupant member voting control under section 308C.545 and occupant member allocation and distribution provisions under sections 308C.721 and 308C.725, a written agreement among persons described in subdivision 1 that relates to the control of or the liquidation, dissolution, and termination of the cooperative; the relations among them; or any phase of the business and affairs of the cooperative, including, without limitation, the management of its business; the declaration and payment of distributions; the sharing of profits and losses; the election of directors; the employment of members by the cooperative; or the arbitration of disputes, is valid, if the agreement is signed by all persons who are then the members of the cooperative, whether or not the members all have voting power, and all those who have signed contribution agreements, regardless of whether those signatories will, when members, have voting power.

Subd. 3. Other agreements not affected. This section does not apply to, limit, or restrict agreements otherwise valid, nor is the procedure set forth in this section the exclusive method of agreement among members or between the members and the cooperative with respect to any of the matters described.

CONTRIBUTIONS, ALLOCATIONS, AND DISTRIBUTIONS

308C.701 AUTHORIZATION, FORM, AND ACCEPTANCE OF CONTRIBUTIONS.

Subdivision 1. Board of directors may authorize. Subject to any restrictions in this chapter regarding occupant and nonoccupant membership interests or in the articles or bylaws, and only when authorized by the board, a cooperative may accept contributions, which may be occupant or nonoccupant membership contributions as determined by the board under subdivisions 2 and 3, make contribution agreements under section 308C.711, and make contribution allowance agreements under section 308C.715.

Subd. 2. Permissible forms. A person may make a contribution to a cooperative:

(1) by paying money or transferring the ownership of an interest in property to the cooperative or rendering services to or for the benefit of the cooperative; or

(2) through a written obligation signed by the person to pay money or transfer ownership of an interest in property to the cooperative or to perform services to or for the benefit of the cooperative.

Subd. 3. Acceptance of contributions. No purported contribution is to be treated or considered as a contribution, unless:

(1) the board accepts the contribution on behalf of the cooperative and in that acceptance describes the contribution, including terms of future performance, if any, and states the value being accorded to the contribution; and

(2) the fact of contribution and the contribution's accorded value are both reflected in the required records of the cooperative.

Subd. 4. Valuation. The determinations of the board as to the amount or fair value or the fairness to the cooperative of the contribution accepted or to be accepted by the cooperative or the terms of payment or performance, including under a contribution agreement in section 308C.711, and a contribution allowance agreement in section 308C.715, are presumed to be proper if they are made in good faith and on the basis of accounting methods, or a fair valuation or other method, reasonable in the circumstances. Directors who are present and entitled to vote, and who, intentionally or without reasonable investigation, fail to vote against approving a consideration that is unfair to the cooperative, or overvalue property or services received or to be received by the cooperative as a contribution, are jointly and severally liable to the cooperative for the benefit of the then members who did not consent to and are damaged by the action, to the extent of the damages of those members. A director against whom a claim is asserted under this subdivision, except in case of knowing participation in a deliberate fraud, is entitled to contribution on an equitable basis from other directors who are liable under this subdivision.

History: 2024 c 96 art 1 s 63

308C.705 RESTATEMENT OF VALUE OF PREVIOUS CONTRIBUTIONS.

Subdivision 1. Definition. As used in this section, an "old contribution" is a contribution reflected in the required records of a cooperative for a nonoccupant membership interest before the time the cooperative accepts a new contribution for a nonoccupant membership interest.

Subd. 2. Restatement required. Whenever a cooperative accepts a new contribution for a nonoccupant membership interest, the board shall restate, as required by this section, the value of all old contributions.

Subd. 3. Restatement as to particular series or class to which new contribution pertains. (a) Unless otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws, this subdivision sets forth the method of restating the value of old contributions that pertain to the same series or class to which the new contribution pertains. To restate the value:

(1) state the value the cooperative has accorded to the new contribution under section 308C.701, subdivision 3, clause (1);

(2) determine what percentage the value stated under clause (1) will constitute, after the restatement required by this subdivision, of the total value of all contributions that pertain to the particular series or class to which the new contribution pertains;

(3) divide the value stated under clause (1) by the percentage determined under clause (2), yielding the total value, after the restatement required by this subdivision, of all contributions pertaining to the particular series or class;

(4) subtract the value stated under clause (1) from the value determined under clause (3), yielding the total value, after the restatement required by this subdivision, of all the old contributions pertaining to the particular series or class;

(5) subtract the value, as reflected in the required records before the restatement required by this subdivision, of the old contributions from the value determined under clause (4), yielding the value to be allocated among and added to the old contributions pertaining to the particular series or class; and

(6) allocate the value determined under clause (5) proportionally among the old contributions pertaining to the particular series or class, add the allocated values to those old contributions, and change the required records accordingly.

(b) The values determined under paragraph (a), clause (5), and allocated and added under paragraph (a), clause (6), may be positive, negative, or zero.

Subd. 4. Restatement method for other series or class. Unless otherwise provided in the articles or bylaws, this subdivision sets forth the method of restating the value of old contributions that do not pertain to the same series or class to which the new contribution pertains. To restate the value:

(1) determine the percentage by which the restatement under subdivision 3 has changed the total contribution value reflected in the required records for the series or class to which the new contribution pertains; and

(2) as to each old contribution that does not pertain to the same series or class to which the new contribution pertains, change the value reflected in the required records by the percentage determined under clause (1). The percentage determined under clause (1) may be positive, negative, or zero.

Subd. 5. New contributions may be aggregated. If a cooperative accepts more than one contribution pertaining to the same series or class at the same time, then for the purpose of the restatement required by this section, the cooperative may consider all the new contributions a single contribution.

History: 2024 c 96 art 1 s 64

308C.711 CONTRIBUTION AGREEMENTS.

Subdivision 1. Signed writing. A contribution agreement, whether made before or after the formation of the cooperative, is not enforceable against the would-be contributor unless it is in writing and signed by the would-be contributor.

Subd. 2. Irrevocable period. Unless otherwise provided in the contribution agreement, or unless all of the would-be contributors and, if in existence, the cooperative, consent to a shorter or longer period, a contribution agreement is irrevocable for a period of six months.

Subd. 3. Current and deferred payment. A contribution agreement, whether made before or after the formation of a cooperative, must be paid or performed in full at the time or times, or in the installments, if any, specified in the contribution agreement. In the absence of a provision in the contribution agreement specifying the time at which the contribution is to be paid or performed, the contribution must be paid or performed at the time or times determined by the board, but a call made by the board for payment or performance on contributions must be uniform for all membership interests of the same class or for all membership interests of the same series.

Subd. 4. Failure to pay remedies. (a) Unless otherwise provided in the contribution agreement, in the event of default in the payment or performance of an installment or call when due, the cooperative may proceed to collect the amount due in the same manner as a debt due the cooperative. If a would-be contributor does not make a required contribution of property or services, the cooperative shall require the would-be contributor to contribute cash equal to that portion of the value, as stated in the cooperative required records, of the contribution that has not been made.

(b) If the amount due under a contribution agreement remains unpaid for a period of 20 days after written notice of demand for payment has been given to the delinquent would-be contributor, the membership interests that were subject to the contribution agreement may be offered for sale by the cooperative for a price in money equaling or exceeding the sum of the full balance owed by the delinquent would-be contributor plus the expenses incidental to the sale.

If the membership interests that were subject to the contribution agreement are sold according to this paragraph, the cooperative shall pay to the delinquent would-be contributor or to the delinquent would-be contributor's legal representative the lesser of:

(1) the excess of net proceeds realized by the cooperative over the sum of the amount owed by the delinquent would-be contributor plus the expenses incidental to the sale, less any penalty stated in the contribution agreement, which may include forfeiture of the partial contribution; and

(2) the amount actually paid by the delinquent would-be contributor.

Subd. 5. Effect of merger. For a merger that does not involve a Minnesota limited liability company, the following shall apply to the effect of a merger:

(a) After the effective date, the domestic cooperative, Minnesota limited liability company, if party to the plan, and any foreign business entity that is a party to the plan become a single entity. For a merger, the surviving business entity is the business entity designated in the plan. For a consolidation, the new domestic cooperative, the Minnesota limited liability company, if any, and any foreign business entity is the business entity provided for in the plan. Except for the surviving or new domestic cooperative, Minnesota limited liability company, or foreign business entity, the separate existence of each merged or consolidated domestic or foreign business entity that is a party to the plan ceases on the effective date of the merger or consolidation.

308C.805 MERGER OF SUBSIDIARY.

Subdivision 1. When authorized; contents of plan. (a) For purposes of this section, "subsidiary" means a domestic cooperative, a Minnesota limited liability company, or a foreign cooperative, and "cooperative" means a domestic cooperative. A Minnesota limited liability company may only participate in a merger under this section to the extent authorized under section 322C.1002. A parent domestic cooperative or a subsidiary that is a domestic cooperative may complete the merger of a subsidiary as provided in this section, provided however, if either the parent or the subsidiary is a business entity organized under the laws of this state, the merger of the subsidiary is not authorized under this section unless the law governing the business entity expressly authorizes merger with a cooperative. A parent cooperative owning at least 90 percent of the outstanding ownership interests of each class and series of a subsidiary directly, or indirectly through related organizations, other than classes or series that, absent this section, would otherwise not be entitled to vote on the merger, may merge the subsidiary into itself or into any other subsidiary at least 90 percent of the outstanding ownership interests of each class and series of which is owned by the parent cooperative directly, or indirectly through related organizations, other than classes or series that, absent this section, would otherwise not be entitled to vote on the merger, without a vote of the members of itself or any subsidiary or may merge itself, or itself and one or more of the subsidiaries, into one of the subsidiaries under this section. (2) the manner and basis of converting the membership interests of the subsidiary or subsidiaries or parent into securities of the parent, subsidiary, or of another cooperative or, in the whole or in part, into money or other property;

(3) if the parent is a constituent cooperative but is not the surviving cooperative in the merger, a provision for the pro rata issuance of membership interests of the surviving cooperative to the holders of membership interests of the parent on surrender of any certificates for shares of the parent; and

(4) if the surviving cooperative is a subsidiary, a statement of any amendments to the articles of the surviving cooperative that will be part of the merger.

(b) If the parent is a constituent cooperative and the surviving cooperative in the merger, it may change its cooperative name, without a vote of its members, by the inclusion of a provision to that effect in the resolution of merger setting forth the plan of merger that is approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors of the parent present. Upon the effective date of the merger, the name of the parent shall be changed.

(c) If the parent is a constituent cooperative but is not the surviving cooperative in the merger, the resolution is not effective unless it is also approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the voting power of all membership interests of the parent entitled to vote at a regular or special meeting if the parent is a cooperative, or in accordance with the laws under which it is organized if the parent is a foreign business entity or cooperative.

Subd. 2. Notice to members of subsidiary. Notice of the action, including a copy of the plan of merger, shall be given to each member, other than the parent and any subsidiary of each subsidiary that is a constituent cooperative in the merger before, or within ten days after, the effective date of the merger.

Subd. 3. Articles of merger; contents of articles. Articles of merger shall be prepared that contain:

(1) the plan of merger;

Subd. 2. Generally. (a) A merger may be abandoned:

(1) if the members of each of the constituent domestic cooperatives entitled to vote on the approval of the plan have approved the abandonment at a meeting by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the voting power of the membership interests entitled to vote; if the merger is with a domestic cooperative and a Minnesota limited liability company or foreign business entity, if abandonment is approved in such manner as may be required by section 322C.1003 for the involvement of a Minnesota limited liability company, or for a foreign business entity by the laws of the state under which the foreign business entity is organized; and the members of a constituent domestic cooperative are not entitled to vote on the approval of the plan, the board of the constituent domestic cooperative has approved the abandonment by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors present;

(2) if the plan itself provides for abandonment and all conditions for abandonment set forth in the plan are met; or

(3) under paragraph (b).

(b) A plan of merger may be abandoned before the effective date of the plan by a resolution of the board of any constituent domestic cooperative abandoning the plan of merger approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors present, subject to the contract rights of any other person under the plan. If a plan of merger is with a domestic or foreign business entity, the plan of merger may be abandoned before the effective date of the plan by a resolution of the foreign business entity adopted according to the laws of the state under which the foreign business entity is organized, subject to the contract rights of any other person under the plan. If the plan of merger is with a Minnesota limited liability company, the plan of merger may be abandoned by the Minnesota limited liability company as provided in section 322C.1003, subject to the contractual rights of any other person under the plan.

(c) If articles of merger have been filed with the secretary of state, but have not yet become effective, the constituent organizations, in the case of abandonment under paragraph (a), clause (1), the constituent organizations or any one of them, in the case of abandonment under paragraph (a), clause (2), or the abandoning organization in the case of abandonment under paragraph (b), shall file with the secretary of state articles of abandonment that contain:

308C.971 BARRING OF CLAIMS.

Subdivision 1. Claims barred. A person who is or becomes a creditor or claimant before, during, or following the conclusion of dissolution proceedings, who does not file a claim or pursue a remedy in a legal, administrative, or arbitration proceeding during the pendency of the dissolution proceeding, or has not initiated a legal, administrative, or arbitration proceeding before the commencement of the dissolution proceedings, and all those claiming through or under the creditor or claimant, are forever barred from suing on that claim or otherwise realizing upon or enforcing it, except as provided in this section.

Subd. 2. Certain unfiled claims allowed. By one year after articles of dissolution have been filed with the secretary of state pursuant to this chapter, or a dissolution order has been entered, a creditor or claimant who shows good cause for not having previously filed the claim may apply to a court in this state to allow a claim:

- (1) against the cooperative to the extent of undistributed assets; or

(2) if the undistributed assets are not sufficient to satisfy the claim, the claim may be allowed against a member to the extent of the distributions to members in dissolution received by the member.

Subd. 3. Omitted claims allowed. Debts, obligations, and liabilities incurred during dissolution proceedings must be paid or provided for by the cooperative before the distribution of assets to a member. A person to whom this kind of debt, obligation, or liability is owed but is not paid may pursue any remedy against the officers, directors, or members of the cooperative before the expiration of the applicable statute of limitations. This subdivision does not apply to dissolution under the supervision or order of a court.
