570.094 ATTACHED PROPERTY RETAKEN; DAMAGES.

If any of the attached property belonging to the respondent passes out of the sheriff's hands without being converted into money, the sheriff may retake the property, and for that purpose has all the powers originally conferred by the order; and any person who conceals or willfully withholds the property from the sheriff shall be liable for actual damages and punitive damages, in an appropriate case, at the suit of the party injured.

History: 1985 c 153 s 11